Chocolate that clears acne

You love chocolate. But remember hearing as a teen that chocolate caused acne? Well there's a new chocolate candy called Frutels, that claims to banish blemishes from the inside out. They may be on to something. The stress of daily life can cause us to reach for sweet treats that aren't the best for our skin.

So how does this candy work? Frutels is sugar-free and is made from natural ingredients such as vitamin B, zinc, vitamin C and biotin. It also contains PABA an antioxidant that is known to improve complexion and reduce fatigue (which aggravates stress--and increases the likelihood of eating junk food)

The company says that it has helped many who have used it within two weeks. A one month supply costs about $38 and theres a 60-day money back guarantee. How cool, a chocolate that puts pimples in their place.
